

Sounds of the Night

The squeak of the door
The rhythmic thud
The Owl's hoot
Silence

The click of the keyboard
The turn of the lock
Purr of the cat
Silence

Pattering rain
The howling wolf
The rustle of trees
Silence

The snore of a man
The tick of the clock
The closing of books
Silence

Soon to be sunrise
The Owl remains
The wind blows
Silence

The moaning groans
Of the floor beneath
The light turns on
Silence

The bark of the dog
As the sun comes up
The rays pollute the darkness

And this beautiful day
Will soon begin
As the first footstep is heard

The clock goes off
The bell sings clear
The shouts of children are joyful

The day has begun
How glorious and sweet
The morning ends the night
